

Łukasz Burkiewicz

<http://orcid.org/0000-0001-9115-0837>

Ignatianum University in Cracow

lukasz.burkiewicz@ignatianum.edu.pl

DOI: 10.35765/pk.2023.430401.02

Editorial

This issue marks the 625th anniversary of the Faculty of Theology in Krakow and sums up a conference commemorating this event that was organized on January 17, 2022 by the authorities of the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow and Jagiellonian University. As I do not want to take up too much of your time, I would only like to recommend reading the introduction by Father Rector of Ignatianum University in Cracow, Prof. Tomasz Homa SJ, Prof. of the UIK, the initiator of this publication, and the letters by Fr. Prof. Robert Tyrała, Rector of the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow, and Prof. Jacek Popiel, Rector of the Jagiellonian University, that were read during last year's conference. Guest editing was entrusted to Prof. Tomasz Graff, Prof. of the UPJPII from the Department of History and Cultural Heritage at the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow, who also shed some light on the status and prospects of research on the Faculty of Theology in Krakow.

We hope you will find our choice of articles enjoyable and helpful!

Dr. Łukasz Burkiewicz

Editor-in-Chief of Perspectives on Culture

